Communication Skills.

Q- What is communication skills?

No matter what your profession is or what you do. It is very essential to have good communication skills.

A person anyways communicates everyday with family, friends or colleagues . It just depends on how well one communicates

Without communication skills we are unable to let others know what we think, feel, or want to accomplish. We are unable to build partnerships, motivate others or resolve conflicts. In this unit you will learn how to develop good communication skills.

Types of communication:

Q- What are types of communication skills?

There are four types of communications

- Verbal :
It is an oral or written form of communication. The focus here is basically on the way of a person speaks or communicates through his writing.
- Non- Verbal:
This refers to the body language of a person who is speaking , like hand gestures, body movements, facial expressions etc.
- Formal:
This refers to more of a business , corporate or official approach to communication
- Non-Formal:
This is a very informal or casual way of communicating often used with family and friends.

A few tips to improve your communication skills.

- Try to find out why you feel that your communication skills aren't good?
- If you find any reasons, list them down. They could be anything.
- Never be shy to communicate. Always communicate what you feel.
- Always keep in mind that no matter what great ideas you have until you communicate them, they are just going to go waste.
- In business or for building partnerships, you have to have good communication skills
- Try to observe in the mirror, note features like body language, facial expressions, voice tone, and anything else that comes to your mind.
